Hey Todd,

My apologies in advance for delayed response.

The day you emailed me I was at my girlfriend grandmother's funeral and thought I responded from my phone.

What time are you available to speak tomorrow to catch up?

Hey Todd,

Great, I will call Atul and see what his schedule is for next week to set something up. Just as a backup, are you available on Wednesday or Friday as well?

Hope you have a wonderful weekend.

Hey Todd,

How does next Thursday work for a conference call with Atul and OneScreen regarding my small equity raise?

What day and time works best for you?

Great, I will make the calls over the weekend and try to set something up for late next week.

Obviously next Wednesday is July 4th and don't know their availability for the rest of the week, but will let you know as soon as I do.

Have a wonderful weekend and a safe holiday.

Todd,

As we have discussed the other day, I will arrange for a conference call with Atul Patel from OneScreen to discuss their current financing needs. I know you stated that you would never do that small of a raise and don't consider it an invasion of your turf, but I completely agree that it serves a few good purposes and ultimately you and your team winning the mandate in the future.

I will set everything up for you, please let me know when is a good time and date for you after the July 4th holiday..??

Have a wonderful and safe weekend.

Regards,

Gregg D. Templeton
